

Dubrovnik Old Town sightseeing walking tour

9 May 2019

“Those who seek paradise on earth”, George Bernard Shaw once wrote, “should come to see Dubrovnik.” Today, he might add that Dubrovnik is the place for all those who wish to renew themselves and their faith in human nature.

The tour starts at 09:00 a.m. at Pile Gate.

Dubrovnik is not just Croatian treasure but one of the world's treasures, a fact that was officially recognized when the United Nations declared it a World Cultural Heritage site.

The old city of Dubrovnik has remained basically unchanged since the thirteenth century. Its medieval ramparts encircle the city which pedestrians can enter through one of two gates – either way, they cross a stone bridge under the watchful gaze of the city's patron Saint Blaise, to find themselves joining the evening promenade down the broad, stone-paved avenue known as the Stradun. More than an avenue, it is the city's main artery, lined with graceful stone palazzos where people live and work and water the red geraniums on their window sills. It is here that the people of Dubrovnik carry on centuries-old tradition of evening promenade which you can either join or watch, a drink in hand, from one of the various cafes and restaurants along the way.

The English-speaking tour starts in front of CAAS at 09:00a.m. where your tour guide will meet you. The rest of the walking tour includes all major city's landmarks and entering visits to the Cathedral, the second oldest pharmacy in Europe within the Franciscan Monastery.
