About MARSTRUCT

The MARSTRUCT series of Conferences sprung from the MARSTRUCT Network of Excellence with 33 partners, which was active from February 2004 to January 2010. It has become a biannual series of Conferences dedicated to Marine Structures allowing for periodic reporting and discussion of developments in the field. Meanwhile, MARSTRUCT is being continued as a Virtual Institute. The six previous MARSTRUCT Conferences have been held in:

- Glasgow, 2007
- Lisbon, 2009
- Hamburg, 2011
- Helsinki, 2013
- Southampton, 2015
- Lisbon, 2017

The absence of an International Conference specially dedicated to Marine Structures was determinant in the decision to promote this as a regular event. The six previous Conferences were successfully organised, bringing together authors from 20 countries, worldwide presenting close to 100 papers at each Conference.

The next edition of the Conference will be organized in the Croatian historical city of Dubrovnik and continues centered on the community interested in the various aspects related with Marine Structures. The organisers aim at maintaining the good standard of the proceedings already achieved, and Taylor & Francis will once again be the chosen publisher, as with previous proceedings that have been indexed on the ISI Web of Knowledge and on SCOPUS. The full papers will be peer-reviewed before acceptance, to maintain the quality of the final publication in order to meet the requirements of the academic and research community. The best papers will be selected for a special issue of an international journal dedicated to marine structures. This Conference will rely on its Committees as the main contributing body to the review process and acceptance of papers.

Conference Objectives

The scope of the MARSTRUCT 2019 Conference will have the usual broad basis, dealing with all aspects related with marine structures. The scope of topics covered here corresponds to those of the International Ship and Offshore Structures Congress (ISSC) given that this series of Conferences are seen as a complementary forum to the ISSC Congresses. The two events differ, however, in their format of presenting results.

The papers will be organized under the following main areas:

- Methods and tools for loads and load effects
- Methods and tools for strength assessment
- Experimental analysis of structures
- Materials and fabrication of structures
- Methods and tools for structural design and optimization
- Structural reliability, safety and environmental protection

Call for papers

Abstracts of about 300 words on any of the above topics are invited before 15 October 2018. Abstracts should be uploaded directly on the Conference web site.

<http://www.marstruct-vi.com/marstruct2019>

Proceedings will be available in book and electronic formats. In order to ensure the production of the Proceedings in time, final manuscripts will be required by 15 January 2019.
